

Police halt armed robbery at Midtown

Quick response by Granite City police officers to a volatile situation at a local drug store resulted in the release of a hostage, who was not harmed, and the capture of an armed robber at 12:30 p.m. Friday.

A Maryland Heights (Mo.) man is being held at Granite City police headquarters, pending the application by local detectives today for felony warrants charging the suspect with armed robbery and armed violence.

ADDITIONAL CHARGES against the same man also may be filed by federal authorities. It was learned. At least one accomplice still is being sought.

After police were called to Midtown Pharmacy, 2057 Johnson Road, at 12:30 p.m. Friday, one officer got near the front window and saw a man inside the store, close to the rear of the building.

The man, wearing a baseball cap and sunglasses was pointing an automatic weapon while holding a woman, who was on the floor, the officer said.

THROUGH SIGN LANGUAGE, the officers communicated with the man, who several minutes later counted the weapon on the floor. During the incident, it was learned, the man had his left arm around the woman's throat and the gun was held to her right side, under her arm.

Robber arrested, another flees as shot is fired

The suspect held his victim in this position as he moved from point to point in the store, dragging his hostage along with him, the victim said.

THE ARMED ROBBER demanded cash and drugs from the store personnel, it was alleged. It also was reported that the 45-year-old suspect fired a shot inside the store.

After he put the weapon down, Police Lt. Col. Robert Astorian, two detectives and an officer entered the store and arrested the man.

The officer who had seen the suspect through the window retrieved the weapon, a .45-caliber automatic handgun, along with a clip containing six live and one spent cartridge casing.

A COMPUTER CHECK on the gun indicates the weapon was stolen in St. Louis in 1978, a detective said.

In searching through the store, officers found a bundle of currency, totaling $62, laying on the floor beneath a table where employees had been eating lunch, it was learned.

Meanwhile, the search continues for at least one other man, who escaped in a stolen car when police first arrived at the drug store.

AN OFFICER FIRED a shot at a 1984 dark blue Mercury which sped west on Johnson Road from the drug store parking lot. The bullet struck the top of the trunk in the center and ricocheted along the rear window of the car, leaving a mark, but the driver did not stop.

The officer firing the weapon apparently was first on the scene and saw the car leaving the lot.

He discharged his .357-revolver after determining the line of fire would not endanger oncoming traffic, nor the nearby Frohardt School building, he stated.

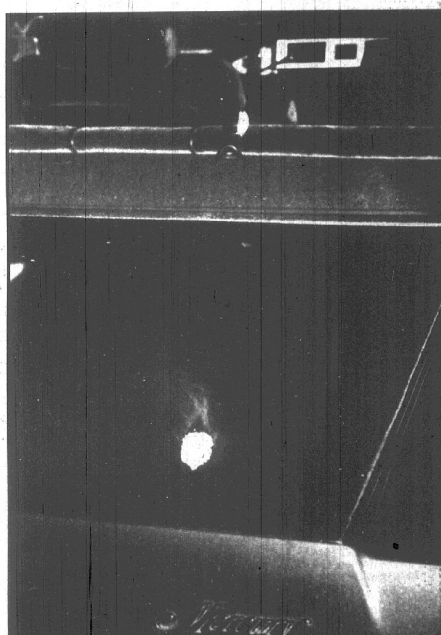

The man later arrested was leaving the store about the same time, but he then went back into the building, it was reported.

SOON AFTER the robbery, a detective found the car abandoned at the rear of Pantera's Pizza, 1335 Johnson Road.

The driver's door was open, the engine was running and the auto's ignition switch had been removed, it was noted.

Owner of the vehicle was Carlene Buenger of Granite City, a Frohardt School teacher who had parked the car at the west end of the school's parking area about noon Friday, and reported it stolen one hour later.

The second suspect probably switched to another vehicle left behind the pizza firm prior to the robbery being attempted, it is believed.

ARMED ROBBERY GETAWAY CAR. Stolen from the Frohardt School parking lot, this car was used by one of two suspects in an attempted armed robbery Friday afternoon at Midtown Pharmacy, 2057 Johnson Road, across from the school. The large gash in the trunk lid is the result of a round fired at the car by Granite City Police Lt. Col. Robert Astorian, as it fled the scene. It was later recovered, with the engine still running, behind Pantera's Pizza, several blocks away on Johnson Road.

National Intergroup merger OK'd

Based upon a preliminary tally of Thursday's votes, officials of National Intergroup Inc. (NII) are declaring a victory in stockholder voting on the proposed merger with Bergen Brunswig Corp., a Los Angeles-based wholesaler of pharmaceutical, medical-surgical and consumer electronic products.

Howard M. "Pete" Love, NII chairman, called the result "a clear-cut majority" in favor of the merger. Love adjourned Thursday's special meeting in Pittsburgh until March 14 to give voting inspectors time to count and validate all ballots.

THE MERGER proposal was contested by Leucadia National Corp., which owns 7.2 percent of NII's stock and had solicited the support of individual and institutional investors. NII management conducted an aggressive campaign, asking stockholders to approve the proposed merger.

NII, a Pittsburgh-based company, owns 50 percent of National Steel Corp., parent corporation of Granite City Steel. NII also has holdings in National Aluminum Corp., 81.4 percent control of First Nationwide Financial Corp., and is involved in an industrial distribution network and diversified manufacturing interests. In his comments to the stockholders at the meeting, Love said management recognized the merger was "a complex and perhaps daring proposal," but said he considered it "a logical and, indeed, necessary step in the long-term strategy we have been evolving for National Intergroup."

THAT STRATEGY, he said, has been to move from heavy concentration in capital intensive businesses to become a supplier of technologically advanced, high value-added products and services.

Moss lawsuit alleges political harassment

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

A $3.3 million lawsuit has been filed in the United States District Court, Southern District of Illinois, by Madison businessman Gerald R. Moss against acting Madison Mayor Thomas Gordon, retired mayor Mike Sasyk and the city's building inspector, John Dutko. In addition, Miss and his attorney, J. Thomas Long, are suing the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Attorney to investigate whether Moss' Constitutional rights have been violated.

At the heart of the matter is whether the city issued a "stop order" on some work Moss was doing for zoning reasons only because Moss is a supporter of John Dutko for mayor in the April 2 election.

MOSS CONTENDS in the lawsuit, "The former mayor of Madison, Mike Sasyk, has endorsed another candidate for mayor, Thomas Gordon. After it became known that Mr. Moss was supporting Mayor Tyrone Echols of Venice and Bellflower, and not the mayor's choice, Mr. Moss was served with a notice by building inspector John Dutko (Feb. 18) to eliminate a significant part of Moss' business."

"We are of the opinion that the actions taken against Mr. Moss are intended to harass, intimidate and annoy Mr. Moss in the free exercise of his constitutional rights to participate in the election process," Long said in a letter to U.S. Attorney Frederick Hess.

Mayor Gordon told the Press-Record Friday that the action against Moss was taken because of zoning violations and public safety, not for political reasons.

GORDON CONTENDED that Moss is removing the wheels from refrigerated boxcars, putting the boxcars on flatbed trucks and moving them through city streets to his property. "This is not consistent with our zoning," his business license is only for a trucking operation. All actions were taken on the advice of the city attorney (Casper Nighoshian)," Gordon said.

He also questioned whether the method Moss was using to transport the boxcars on flatbed trucks through city streets was safe and within the load limits for the streets.

Mayor's forum tonight

Candidates for mayor of Granite City will discuss how they view the future of the city during the 1985 "Mayor's Forum" from 8 to 10 o'clock tonight in the Granite City Township Hall, 2060 Delmar Ave.

Candidates who have agreed to participate are the incumbent, Mayor Paul Schuler, and Street Superintendent Mac Warfield and GC Township Assessor Von Dee Cruse. The fourth candidate, Ed Jeff, has not answered an invitation to participate.

LEO KONZEN, a local attorney, will moderate the event, which is being sponsored by the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce. The event will be open to the public. It also will be videotaped for later viewing on cable television.

Candidates have been given identical lists of 16 questions determined by the Chamber's board of directors. Eight of those questions will be selected just before the forum to be asked.

The event originally was to have begun at 7 p.m., but has been changed to 8 p.m. due to one candidate having a conflict in his schedule.

Wolf seeks end to emissions testing

State Representative Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) has introduced legislation to repeal the auto emissions testing requirements which were signed into law last year.

In 1984, faced with the threat of losing $100 million in federal highway funds, the Illinois General Assembly was forced to pass controversial legislation requiring emissions testing in most of Cook, Madison and St. Clair Counties, as well as parts of DePage County.

"COMBATING AIR pollution is an issue which I take very seriously," Wolf said, "but I believe the federal government may have prematurely forced our hand in this case."

Wolf noted that monitoring done in 1984 by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency has shown a dramatic decline in the ozone levels throughout the state.

"In fact, the Metro-East area had only one-third the number of days of above-standard ozone levels when compared to studies prepared in 1983," Wolf added.

THE OZONE monitoring was conducted in 1984 at 36 sites across the state, and was performed between April and October, traditionally the peak ozone months.

"In light of the declining ozone levels, I believe Illinois citizens should not be saddled with the $36 million cost of testing equipment," Wolf said.

"The most fair solution to this controversy would be a repeal of the Illinois law and a non-aggression pact with the federal government for another four years in order to monitor the trend of declining ozone levels," Wolf added.

Combined newspaper premieres on Sunday

"The Best of Both Worlds" is the theme of a new cooperative effort designed to give Granite City newspaper readers a new complete and informative package each week, while still maintaining their favorite newspapers.

"We have entered into a cooperative arrangement with the Granite City Journal to combine the strengths of the Press-Record and the Journal into one newspaper on weekends, starting this Sunday, March 17. The combination should enable us, through our combined strengths, to give our readers a more complete weekend newspaper, with current news and sports, expanded features, syndicated columnists and special offerings, such as food and entertainment news," commented Gary R. Schneider, Press-Record editor.

SCHNEIDER today was named executive editor of the combined weekend Press-Record/Journal. The Press-Record will continue to publish independently on Thursdays as a paid-circulation newspaper, and the Journal will continue to publish Wednesday as a free-distribution newspaper.

"This is an exciting challenge. We are paving the path for what we believe is going to be a national trend, combining the strengths of the paid-circulation newspapers and the free-circulation newspapers," commented Rick Jarvis, president/publisher of East Side Publications, which owns both the Press-Record and the Journal.

THE WEEKEND Press-Record/Journal will be printed at the Press-Record plant, 1815 Delmar Ave., Monday afternoons and will be delivered to all homes in the Quad-City area

Saturday evenings, bearing a dateline of Sunday.

Although the copies will be 25-cents each, every home will receive a free complimentary copy weekly.

The Monday Press-Record will be discontinued after today. "WE ARE MAKING every effort to see that the three newspapers now serving the Quad-City area—the Press-Record, the Journal and the combined Sunday newspaper—each have separate identities and we hope the public will want to read all three. Each newspaper will have its own strengths and offerings," Schneider said.

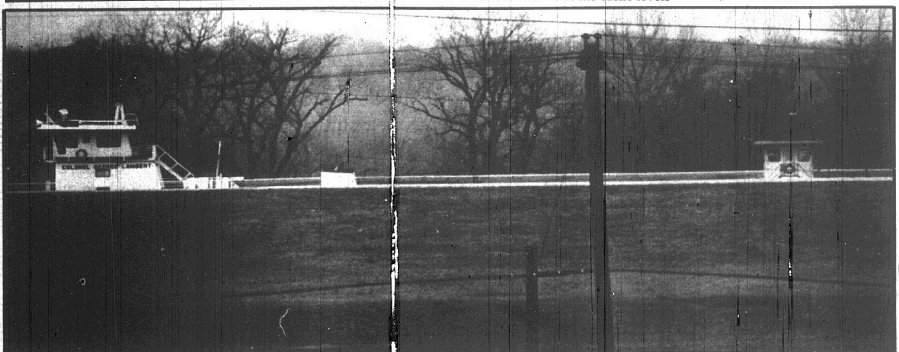

He explained that all Press-Record reporters, photographers, columnists and sports reporters will contribute to the weekend newspaper as well as to the Press-Record. Both the Press-Record and the Journal will draw upon the staff and strengths of the other to help each newspaper offer more complete news coverage.

"Our objective is not to break the 25-year tradition of the Granite City Press-Record, but to create an even better weekend newspaper for our readers."

"THROUGH THIS new affiliation, the talents and fresh ideas of the Journal staff and that newspaper's resources can be used to make the weekend newspaper stronger than either the Sunday Journal or the Monday Press-Record. We will do our utmost to make this weekend newspaper 'the best of both worlds,'" Schneider said.

The Journal staff moved from its office at 1315 Nineteenth St. Saturday into the Press-Record building, 1815 Delmar Ave., where all business, advertising and editorial functions of both newspapers are now headquartered.

Office hours have been changed to 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays.

HOW HIGH'S THE WATER? Recent river levels in the Mississippi valley have swelled most streams in the area, including the Chain of Rocks Canal. These river flows, traveling in tandem, are seen in the canal just west of Ill. Route 3, Friday morning well above the levees, evidence of the extremely high water level now being experienced by river traffic.

Pledges sought for MD dance marathon

The 13th annual "dance Marathon" to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association will be held at Iowa State University in Ames on April 12 and 13 at Hilton Concourse. Local dances Gerald Miller will join in the 30-hour event along with 1,500 other dancers. The dance has been the largest fundraising event for MDA six out of the last seven years. Since 1973, more than $575,000 has been raised for the fight against Muscular Dystrophy. This year's goal of $95,000 was set by the 50-member committee.

Winners of the dance will be determined by finishing the 30-hour dance with the highest amount of pledges and donations collected prior to the Saturday night commencement. Scholarships totaling $1,000 donated by Rite Beverage Inc., distributor of Miller Beer, will be divided among the top two couples.

The dance organization raising the most money will select a representative to present the check to Jerry Lewis during the 1985 Labor Day Television in Las Vegas.

Q: I'm a 20-year old college senior. I'll graduate this Spring, and I have a job lined up after graduation. My problem is that I have never had a credit rating established. I would like to get started now, because I'll be moving into my own apartment, and will need credit to get up housekeeping. I understand that a bank credit card is a good way to start, but that they are difficult to get for people in my situation. What would you suggest?

A: You are right, a bank card is a good way to start your credit, and they may be difficult to obtain in your present situation. However, you do have some options. Some major bank card companies do issue cards to college juniors and seniors before graduation. You may also ask the holder of a card to co-sign for you. Some banks offer credit cards to students who open an account with them. Talk to a banker in your community where you go to college. He or she will be happy to give you information on such options.

Venice Precinct 11 moved to Dunbar Annex

Of specific importance to voters in the April 2 election is a change in polling place in Precinct 11 in Venice's Fourth Ward. County Board Member Don Garrett said during last week's regular meeting of the Venice City Council.

Fourth Ward residents casting ballots in previous elections at Precinct 11, located at 109 Weaver St., will now vote in the Dunbar School Annex, it was announced.

Older persons had difficulty with very high steps leading into the former polling place and a lack of adequate plumbing facilities also created a hardship for people working all day in the polls, Garrett stated.

"Thanks to the cooperation of Willie Walker, who runs a day care center at Dunbar School, we have been able to change the polling place location, giving easier access to the public, as well as being more centrally located," the county board member said.

Garrett reported that the county board is considering reorganizing several precincts, to facilitate a leveling out of several political subdivisions where wide differences in population are noted.

As an example, Garrett mentioned Nameooki Precinct 11 with 800 plus voters, comparing it to Venice Precinct 10 with only 218 registered voters.

"Two precincts in Venice Township are way out on the other side of Granite City and there is talk of exchanging those precincts for areas closer to Venice.

"This (change) would bring together a closer proximity of voters," he explained.

Garrett noted also the Illinois General Assembly is considering equalizing township areas by retaining existing township lines only if their assessed valuation exceeds $10 million.

Venice Township has an assessed valuation of $29 million, he pointed out.

The council also approved paying bills and authorized the attendance of two street department workers at an insecticide handling school. The state requires licensing by persons now handling mosquito spraying equipment, it was noted.

Tax tips

Filing a tax return may be a good idea even if you are not required to do so, the Internal Revenue Service says. Many low-income workers like students, retirees and part-time employees are entitled to receive a full refund of the federal income taxes withheld during the year, but they must file a return to get it.

Check your W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, to see if any federal income tax was withheld. If any was withheld and you have no tax liability, filing a return is the only way to recover the money that was withheld.

If you expect to have no tax liability again in 1985 and your income will be below the amount required to file a return, you can avoid having to file a tax return to recover your tax withheld by giving your employer a new form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, claiming exemption from withholding.

You may claim exemption from withholding only if you had no income tax liability in 1984 and you expect to have no income tax liability in 1985. However, if you are eligible for the Earned Income Credit, you must still file a tax return.

Death benefit package for paramedics clears the House

Legislation to extend $50,000 death benefits to survivors of fire protection district paramedics killed in the line of duty has cleared the House Human Services Committee.

House Bill 38, sponsored by State Representative Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) corrects inconsistencies in present law which extend the $50,000 benefits only to paramedics employed by state and local governments.

"Limiting these death benefits to state and local government paramedic personnel deprives approximately 200 dedicated paramedics under the jurisdiction of 632 fire protection districts in Illinois of protections they deserve," Wolf said.

"Legislation was enacted last session to extend $50,000 death benefits to survivors of law enforcement officers and correctional employees killed while on the job," Wolf explained, "but House Bill 2449, which would have included fire protection paramedics was caught up in the end of session logjam and did not come up for a vote."

The House Human Services recommended passage of the bill on an unanimous 12 to 0 vote and the bill now goes to the full House for consideration.

BATTERY COMPLAINT SIGNED

A five-diamond wedding band valued at $1,500 and a 25-inch color television worth $800 were stolen in a burglary at the home of Howard Wiggins, 2677 Adams St., he reported last week. The rear door was forced and drawers in the dwelling were ransacked.

THE LAW AND YOU

BY RICK REED
Attorney At Law

Recently a woman who had been divorced in the State of Oregon came to this office to collect back child support. At the time of the divorce, she received custody of the two children and subsequently moved back to the State of Illinois, which was her original home. Her husband moved to New Jersey, and by the time she arrived at this office, he was $6,000 behind in his support payments.

The woman in this case questioned whether she could register the original decree of divorce in Illinois and then go through the Illinois Courts to seek a Court order requiring her ex-husband to pay the arrearages. She also sought an increase in child support. The Court in a case such as this must balance the desire of the woman to which would be imposed upon the father in having to come to Illinois from New Jersey to defend his action.

The Illinois Supreme Court in an earlier case noted that whether Courts can exercise jurisdiction over a non-resident father in these matters depends upon what "minimum contacts" the father has had with the State. The Court went on to say that the single act of permitting his child to live with the mother in this State was not a sufficient "minimum contact" to cause a reasonable parent to believe that he would be required to litigate a child support case thousands of miles from his home.

Applying this reasoning to the case noted at the beginning of this article, the mother could not bring her child support action in Illinois. How can the plaintiff collect her back support in a case such as this? In our example, she can either return to Oregon or she can bring an action under the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act (URESA), which would give the wife a means of bringing her claim without returning to the State of the husband's residence or the State where the divorce decree was entered.

It is important to note that a wife always has the right to bring an action where the original divorce was entered. This may be a good reason why a person should seek a dissolution in the state where he intends to reside on a permanent basis. This will make it more convenient in the future to enforce or modify any of the provisions under the original divorce decree.

Moss lawsuit

Market St., Madison, for more than 25 years, his attorney said.

THE FEDERAL LAWSUIT seeks $100,000 in actual damages from each defendant and $1 million in punitive damages from each.

In the lawsuit, it is contended that "...in the normal course of business, plaintiff (Moss) has begun to engage in the repair and refurbishing of railroad cars mounted on normal truck chassis at the location. Similar work on transport trucks and other heavy equipment predates any ordinance and has been grandfathered."

Moss has a Belcoff for mayor sign in his yard and has openly supported the re-election of Venice Mayor Echols, the lawsuit says. "Mayor Echols is running for mayor of Venice with plaintiff's support and is opposed by Victor Valentine. Valentine is the hand-picked candidate of Mike Sasyk," the lawsuit contends. It also contends Gordon is Sasyk's "hand-picked" candidate for mayor of Madison.

GORDON DENIES that he is closely affiliated with Sasyk and says he has seen the former mayor very few times since taking office. He said Sasyk has only been in Gordon's campaign headquarters once, to his knowledge, and that he took an active role in the campaign. "I would like to set the record straight that I am not a 'yes man' for Mayor Sasyk. I am my own man and I have my own ideas," he told the Press-Record.

After Moss made his support for Belcoff and Echols known, Dutko ordered him to cease operating his business involving the repair and refurbishing of railroad cars and threatened him with a $500 per day fine if Moss continued, the suit states.

"Other persons, supporting the candidacy of the hand-picked candidates, Gordon and Valentine, have not been so abused, nor has their person or property been threatened in any way harassed or damaged," the lawsuit states.

MOSS HAS and continues to suffer "grievous and manifest injury as a result of defendants' wrongful acts," the suit adds.

It asks the court to declare that the acts of Sasyk, Gordon and Dutko were unconstitutional and unlawful, to issue a permanent injunction restraining the city from interfering with Moss' rights to free speech and free political expression and that each defendant pay $100,000 in actual damages and $1 million in punitive damages, plus attorney's fees and court fees.

In his letter to Hess, Long also states, "We hereby request that the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Attorney investigate this matter and help protect Mr. Moss' rights as secured to him under the First, Fourth, Fifth and 14th Amendments to the Constitution of the United States."

Burglars escape area, leave vehicle behind

Local residents who reported about last night to find a strange vehicle with the engine running parked in their driveway took all the right actions, according to a Granite City police officer.

Despite prompt response by officers, who surrounded the dwelling and then instituted an immediate search of the neighborhood, the burglars apparently escaped the area, it was learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schreier, 3345 Johnson Road, arrived home about 7:45 p.m. Sunday and saw a yellow Datsun station wagon with the engine running parked in their driveway.

The homeowner drove his own auto into the drive, blocking the other car, and the couple saw two people run from the rear of the dwelling toward Franklin Avenue.

The Schriebers made the right decision by staying out of their own residence and going to a neighbor's house to call police, it was noted.

Apparently the Schriebers interrupted the burglary as it just began, as nothing appeared to be missing from the house, reports said. The station wagon was impounded and the investigation is continuing. While still searching for the intruders near Johnson Road at 8:40 p.m. Sunday, a patrolling officer was flagged down by Donna Streid, 9 Riviera Drive, who reported her dwelling had been burglarized.

Mrs. Streid was advised to stay some distance away from the residence while the officer searched the house, which proved to be empty.

The front door had been forced open and the living room, bedrooms, bathroom, dining room and kitchen had been ransacked.

Immediately determined to be missing were a 35mm camera valued at $100, a wooden jewelry box and assorted jewelry worth $500 and a portable television. Property was being inventoried to complete the list of stolen items.

Reports did not link the two burglaries together, but the Riviera address is only a short distance from the Schreier home.

Kroger may move to Nameoki center

Christian says he plans to meet with Kroger representatives later today to discuss a possible leasing agreement.

Spokesmen in Kroger's real estate department could not be reached for comment.

Forum tonight can help voters

We encourage all Granite City area residents who can to attend tonight's Mayor's Forum at 8 o'clock in the Granite City Township Hall.

The Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce has put a great deal of thought and effort into coming up with a list of important questions for the candidates to answer. Although we would have preferred the candidates to get the questions "cold" at tonight's event, a compromise was reached with the campaign committees that each candidate would be given an identical list of 16 questions, eight of which would be selected by the Chamber to be asked tonight.

The implications of the April 2 election on the future of our community could be enormous. Leadership in the next four years could determine whether this community grows or deteriorates. The questions to be asked tonight deal not with the past, but with the future—our future.

For those unable to attend tonight's discussion, it will be videotaped and shown several times on South-Western Cable TV, Ltd., including one showing election eve.

The Chamber has gone to great effort to see that the format of tonight's forum is such that the voters get a great deal of information upon which to make their decision who should be the next mayor of Granite City. We hope everyone will have access to that information, either in person tonight or on cable TV.

An informed electorate is the key to a responsive and effective government. Tonight is a good opportunity to get informed about the candidates.

Supporting the 'shield' law

We support Governor James R. Thompson's effort to increase the protection the state's "shield law" provides for members of the news media.

It is for more than just selfish reasons we are glad to see the state attempting to protect reporters' privilege of keeping confidential sources confidential. When former Belleville News-Democrat editorial reporter Richard Hargrave was jailed for refusing to disclose a source for an editorial he wrote, it had a chilling effect—not only on reporters, but on sources who ask reporters to keep their names confidential.

Failure to protect reporters risks the "drying up" of confidential news sources and, therefore, of much news.

Many people who bring "tips" and news to the Press-Record ask that their names not be disclosed. In many cases, this request is for no particular reason other than the case or incident may end up in court and the sources do not want to risk getting caught up in a court battle.

The legislation being supported by the governor would reduce reporters' fear that frivolous libel or slander suits may be taken against them for the sole purpose of forcing them to reveal the identity of a confidential source.

It does not change the basic libel and slander laws making reporters liable for publishing untrue statements if the reporter was negligent, reckless or malicious.

It is a balanced approach. Reporters who intentionally set out to falsely harm someone's reputation will still be subject to lawsuits and court judgments. Reporters who act responsibly and promise to protect the confidentiality of important sources can continue to work without the fear of frivolous lawsuits under the governor's proposal.

Against putting Realtors on zoning board

To the Editor,

It's time for the people of Granite City to wake up. Are you going to sit idly by while the Realtors of Granite City determine your fate?

Two Realtors have just been appointed to the Plan Commission. They are trying any way they can to gain control of Madison Avenue, Johnson Road and Pontoon Road. Several years ago when the new zoning ordinance was written, they tried to commercialize these entire streets and the people spoke up and objected.

We do not need more traffic and congestion brought into our neighborhoods, but this will happen if you don't speak up.

We have plenty of idle space in shopping centers in these areas, so we don't need more commercial space.

Mr. (Carl) Hoffman thinks the Realtors can bring more knowledge to the Plan Commission. I suggest this avenue is being used to strictly gain more favorable decisions for the Realtors. The majority of rezoning issues brought before the Plan Commission are brought by Realtors for their prospective clients. They need zoning changes to improve their sales, and thus, their income.

If the Realtors can provide so much input to the Plan Commission, why have they never attended a meeting unless it was to their benefit? All meetings are open to the public and a notice appears in the paper giving time and date.

I realize the Plan Commission is only a recommending body, but the council usually abides by their decision.

It may just be a coincidence, but I find it just a little strange that in the same issue of the Press-Record that carried the notice of Mr. Hoffman's appointment to the Plan Commission, there was also a notice to the effect that he is sponsoring a benefit for Mayor Schuler.

Farmers' Aid Veto

The plight of the American farmer has been widely publicized in recent weeks. Last week, President Reagan vetoed a bill which would send emergency aid to farmers. Persons shopping at Crossroads Plaza Sunday were asked how they felt about the farmers' plight and if they think the president should have vetoed the bill benefiting them. Their reactions follow:

Marjorie Cockrell, Granite City

"Yes, I think the farmers should be helped. They're fighting interest rates, and as far as him (Reagan) vetoing the bill I'm not so sure it was a good idea."

Dave Nappier, Granite City

"I really think the farmers need help. They seem to be compromising a lot. They can't price their own products, and that's not what a free market is all about. I wouldn't have vetoed the bill. I'm not so sure the media is getting the farmers' message to the public. I'm not so sure the people really understand their situation."

Melody Siddle, Granite City

"Yes, I think the farmers should have gotten the aid. The poor guys are desperate. They're the bread basket of this country. I'd certainly be in favor of more aid to farmers."

Bob Tatum, Granite City

"Sure, they may need the money, but the budget cuts have to come from somewhere. Everybody's in favor of cutting the budget except when it means taking from their special interests. When that's discussed, they want that left alone. And, there really isn't a free market anymore. They're (farmers) granted price guarantees and other subsidies. I think the farmers have been subsidized enough."

Tom Gordon wants guidelines for a debate

To the Editor,

I would like to respond to the recent letter in the Forum from the Madison Concerned Citizens.

First of all, I feel that any discussions of issues should not be sponsored by a partisan group.

Secondly, my staff is willing to meet with members of my opponents staff to work out the details of a public forum or debate (as defined by Webster and other authoritative sources.)

Any issues concerning the election should be presented by a panel of citizens, mutually agreed upon by the committees. This will allow for an orderly and informative discussion for the benefit of all.

My past experiences with the Madison Concerned Citizens at meetings leads me to believe that an orderly process cannot be maintained under their auspices in an unbiased manner.

Again, my offer stands — call it "open forum" or "debate" as long as guidelines are established and we don't end up with a free-for-all style meeting.

I hope these details can be worked out because the public deserves to hear the views expressed by their mayoral candidates.

Acting Mayor of Madison

Dixon, Simon in area Friday for salute to the region

Illinois' two Senators will be the featured speakers at the first annual "Salute to Southwestern Illinois" to be hosted by the Leadership Council Southwestern Illinois, Friday.

More than 300 community leaders from the region are expected to attend the "Salute," which will take the form of a dinner at the new Collinsville Hilton, March 15. Invitations for the event were sent out mid-February.

Both U.S. Senators Alan Dixon and Paul Simon have accepted invitations to speak at the event. The purpose of the gathering will be to focus attention on the many opportunities and strengths of the Southwestern Illinois area, particularly Madison and St. Clair Counties, the area which the Leadership Council has chosen for its focus.

The dinner, which is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m., will be preceded by a reception an hour earlier. Highlighting the event will be recognition of outstanding accomplishments in Southwestern Illinois, as well as major investments and other positive contributions to the area.

Expected to be presented during the "Salute" is a review of the investments and projects current or pending in the area. Preliminary statistics gathered from newspapers and other sources over the past year by the Southern Illinois University Office of Area Development indicate a definite trend toward increased activities.

Reviewing three major areas, the statistics indicate that activities are underway in major industrial expansions and investments, commercial projects and governmental projects, such as roads and other infrastructure improvements.

Industrial projects either underway or projected include nearly a billion dollars' worth of expansion in the formative stages. These range from investments as small as $75,000 to enormous expansions such as a proposed $800 million coal gasification plant.

As many as 100 new commercial investment projects have been identified. Of these, 37 are renovations of existing businesses totaling more than $37 million in investments. In addition, planned and projected new projects, 63 in all, are expected to create $85 million in new expansions over the next two years.

Government expansions and projects will result in $197 million in new work here in the near future. Of these, 28 are new projects which are projected to bring $175 million in improvements while upgrading existing facilities will account for an additional 26 projects with an estimated value of $22 million.

Arrest GC man in Madison tavern

Carl D. Smith, 43, of 39 Parktowne West, Mobile Home Court, was charged with three counts of aggravated assault, reckless conduct, destruction of property, unlawful use of a weapon and with not having a "Firearm Owner's Identification (FOID)" card when arrested at 7 p.m. Friday at Jane's Club Tiki, 1223 Madison Ave., Madison.

Some time afterward, the barmaid alleged that Smith poured beer on the woman's head and onto the floor. She advised him to stop or she would call police.

At this point, Smith allegedly drew a revolver from the right side of the wheelchair and pointed the gun at the barmaid.

He also allegedly placed the barrel of the revolver at her chest, saying that she wasn't to call anyone, she told police. The woman managed to get away from him and telephoned police.

Meanwhile, two patrons were able to get hold of Smith's right hand, which was holding the weapon, and the .357-magnum revolver discharged into the ceiling above the bar, reports said.

One of the two patrons who recovered the gun suffered powder burns to his right hand and reported being deafened in his right ear.

Smith, a paraplegic, was taken by ambulance to Madison police headquarters. Due to his physical condition and a lack of adequate facilities to house a prisoner in a wheelchair, Smith was transferred by senior citizens' bus to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

However, the county authorities requested specific paperwork be completed prior to housing Smith and the Madison seniors' bus returned Smith to St. Elizabeth Medical Center when he complained of pain. He was returned to the county jail at a later time, it was learned.

Stronger DUI program to go to the legislature this spring

Governor James R. Thompson and Secretary of State Jim Edgar said Monday that an immediate six-month driver's license suspension, streamlined administrative efforts, greater attention to victims and many other recommendations made by the Illinois DUI Task Force will be implemented by the state or sent to the Legislature for action this spring.

"Illinois has been at the forefront of a national effort to get drunk drivers off our highways by creating model statutes and improving the powers law enforcement agencies can use to keep them off the streets. The recommendations of the Task Force will keep us at the front of that battle," the governor said.

A key feature of the package Thompson and Edgar outlined will be a six-month driver's license suspension for a person who, after being arrested for DUI (driving under the influence), either takes a chemical test and is found to have a blood alcohol concentration above the .10 legal limit or refuses to take the test at the time of arrest. Such a step will remove drunk drivers from the road while their cases are decided in court, Thompson said.

"There is no good reason for someone who faces drunk driving charges to be allowed to repeat a crime that society has said it will not tolerate," he said.

"I am particularly pleased that the governor is supporting the proposal for an immediate administrative license suspension," Secretary Edgar said. "Similar laws have been adopted by 23 other states and this recommendation will help prevent drunk drivers from getting back behind the wheel while they wait for their sentences. With this change, we will be able to take a driver's license away from a person within 15 days and not have to wait the average five months before action can be taken."

Edgar said many of the recommendations endorsed by the Thompson Administration, Monday can be put into effect without legislative action, while others require a vote in the General Assembly.

The Secretary of State's Office is already preparing to issue distinctive drivers' licenses this year to persons under the age of 21 to make it more difficult for underage persons to purchase alcohol. Other key Task Force proposals that can be used through policy changes include:

—Expanding Department of Law Enforcement data collection efforts and capabilities—a change that will enable law enforcement officials at the state and local government levels to improve their ability to chart DUI arrest and conviction trends by including amended and reduced charges.

—Improving public information efforts by expanding the use of local citizen groups and the media.

—Asking the State Board of Education to create a uniform curriculum for students in grades kindergarten through 12 that will include expanded information on the effects of alcohol and other drugs as they contribute to highway safety problems.

Other Task Force recommendations—in addition to the six-month suspension proposal—that need legislative action this spring and are supported by Thompson and Edgar include:

—Suspending a person's driver's license when he or she is convicted for illegally transporting alcohol two or more times in a year.

—Designating as a Class 4 felony any second or subsequent convictions or driving with a revoked or suspended license from a DUI, leaving the scene of a fatal or personal injury accident, reckless homicide or conviction for refusal to take a chemical test.

—Helping drunk driver victims by increasing maximum Dram Shop liability limits from $20,000 to $100,000 per individual and $200,000 per incident, considering victim impact statements and their testimony at sentencing hearings; requiring prosecutors to notify victims of their families of all significant decisions in their cases; and expanding restitution awards and DUI and reckless homicide victims.

—Doubling the fee a person must pay to receive a new driver's license after his or her license has been suspended or revoked. The new fees would be $30 after a suspension, $60 after revocation. Revenue from this change will be used to pay administrative costs in the six-month suspension program.

—Enabling local governments to impose surcharges of as much as 50 percent on fines levied against DUI offenders.

—Clarifying current state law to give bar and restaurant owners the authority to refuse to serve customers who have had too much to drink or those who they suspect cannot safely operate a motor vehicle.

—Providing that being under the influence of alcohol or other drugs can be considered prima facie evidence during reckless homicide prosecutions.

Mandating that all DUI offenders undergo alcohol or drug evaluations before coming to trial.

—Giving Illinois the ability to revoke or suspend the drivers' license of an Illinois motorist if he or she violates drunk driving laws in another state.

—Reducing the time limit for reporting a fatal or personal injury accident from 48 to three hours.

The Illinois DUI Task Force, which was chaired by Edgar, was created by the Governor in December 1983 and conducted hearings in seven cities and heard testimony from 150 persons, including law enforcement officials, judges, attorneys, representatives from the alcohol beverage industry, as well as DUI victims, their families, students and citizens groups. The Task Force submitted its interim report in December.

Figures show that since the first DUI law was enacted in Illinois in 1982, the conviction to arrest ratio has more than doubled, rising 115 percent above 1981 figures. Last year there were 19 percent more convictions than in 1983.

Other statistics from 1984 show that 69 percent of those refusing to take a DUI test had their licenses suspended, as required by law. Of the remaining 5,497 cases sent to a judicial hearing, only 46 percent had their driver's licenses suspended.

'Shield' law may be strengthened

Governor James R. Thompson proposed legislation Tuesday that would provide a greater "shield" to members of the news media seeking to protect confidential sources of information while gathering and reporting news in Illinois.

"A free press is a key to the foundation of a free society," the governor said. "Sometimes, though it may hurt, a free press is vital to keeping our society free. It is a fundamental provision of the laws of Illinois."

The governor said that he was submitting a bill to the Legislature that would amend the Reporters' Privilege section of the Code of Civil Procedure. The legislation will be sponsored by House Minority Leader Lee A. Daniels of Elmhurst.

Currently, Illinois law provides that except in libel and slander cases, the identification of a reporter's source of information is protected unless the party seeking disclosure can demonstrate to a court that:

—The information being sought is not confidential under any federal or State statute.

—All other, non-privileged sources of the same information have been exhausted.

—Disclosure is essential to the protection of a public interest.

The governor's proposed amendment would eliminate the libel and slander exception to the statutory Reporters' Privilege. The result of such an amendment would be to establish a similar judicial procedure for balancing the media's interest in maintaining the confidentiality of sources against a plaintiff's need to know a source's identity in order to prove whether the reporter acted with malice or negligence in a given libel or slander case.

"The purpose of this legislation is to clear up any doubts or ambiguities that might exist in Illinois law regarding the privilege of a reporter to conduct his or her business without fear that a frivolous libel or slander action could be taken against them for the sole purpose of forcing the identity of a confidential source," the governor said.

"However, this amendment does not change basic libel and slander laws making a reporter liable for publishing untrue statements if he or she is negligent, or in the case of public figures, reckless or malicious in relying on sources or otherwise reporting the news," the governor said.

The governor also noted that the proposed legislation deals with three other issues:

—It deletes the requirement that the information sought be disclosed was obtained by a reporter "during the course of his or her employment." This limitation appears to be unduly restrictive in view of the nature of the reporter's news gathering activities.

—The amendment clears up any ambiguity that may exist with regard to application of the Reporters' Privilege provisions to part-time reporters.

—This proposal would apply to the staffs of both paid circulation and unpaid circulation newspapers as long as they were general circulation publications.

Hurt in accident, charged with DUI

John D. Wallace, 26, of 611 Fillmore Ave., Venice, sustained injuries last week when he apparently lost control of his southbound auto and struck the car of Albert V. Simpson of St. Louis, parked in the 1400 block of Madison Avenue.

After hitting the vehicle, Wallace's car bounced and crossed four lanes of traffic, striking a house on the opposite side of the street at 1420 Madison Ave., witnesses alleged. The dwelling is owned by Eva Popovskiy.

The impact caused severe damage to a brick porch at the northwest corner of the residence, reports said. Damage was estimated at more than $5,000.

When officers arrived at the scene, Wallace was found lying on the ground next to his 1978 auto. He was being comforted by another motorist who reported pulling Wallace from his car after the crash.

The injured driver was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where Wallace allegedly became very abusive toward doctors and nurses. A plastic bag containing a green substance, believed to be cannabis, was found in a pocket of his clothing.

Wallace declined to take a blood alcohol test and was admitted to the medical center for treatment of injuries.

He was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol, driving without a license, exceeding the speed limit, driving while his driver's license was suspended and unlawful possession of cannabis.

Sessions for farmers set

The University of Illinois Extension Service has slated three separate meetings for farmers this Thursday.

A meeting entitled "Coping With the Tall Fescue Fungus" will be conducted from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday at Belleville Area College in Belleville. The Illinois Forage and Grassland Council, the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service will co-sponsor the event.

Registration is $7 a person, including lunch.

For February GCHS' Cotter named P-R Athlete of the Month

By JOE THOMPSON
of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — Retiring Granite City High wrestling coach Bill "Red" Schmitt is not one to show emotion. But words turned soft when talking about senior Jeff Cotter, the Granite City Press-Record's "Athlete of the Month" for February.

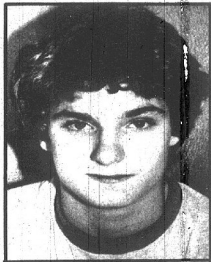

Watching the work and sacrifice Cotter put in the last four years and the success he achieved, "I guess you could get sentimental about it," Schmitt said. "You want to see him do as well as he possibly could."

Schmitt brought forth other superlatives.

"Worked all the time... desire to win... dedicated athlete... very coachable."

"THE WHOLE DEAL," said Schmitt, whose request for retirement after 35 years teaching and coaching at Granite City officially was accepted by the School Board last week.

The dark-eyed, brown-haired Cotter fashioned a 43-5 record this season. The number of wins matched the Warriors' all-time single season high. Cotter won the Western Conference championship, placed first at the Collinsville Regional and third at the Granite City Sectional. He finished sixth at the state meet, and but for a few unhelpful breaks, "He would have placed two inches higher than what he did," said Schmitt.

CLOSER inspection of the records reveals a more noteworthy accomplishment. The 5-foot 3-inch Cotter wrestled in the 96-pound weight class. Yet he could be considered the Babe Ruth of Granite City wrestling.

In baseball, the home run — Ruth's ticket to baseball immortality — is the ultimate achievement in power. In wrestling, the top accomplishment is the pin.

Of Cotter's 43 wins, 19 were first-period pins. Eleven of those falls were "sub 60" kills — meaning pins within the first minute of the first period. In wrestling, each period is two minutes in length. There are three periods. In all, Cotter posted 22 pins. His fastest kill was 26 seconds.

BOTH THE 19 first-period pins and the "sub 60" falls are Warrior records, said Schmitt. Cotter ended his high school wrestling career with a 102-20 record.

Besides Cotter, also singled out for their accomplishments in February were Cotter's teammates, senior Steve Knoff and sophomore Mike Wilson. Senior Warrior hockey player Mark Doniff, senior Charles Milton of the Venice High basketball team and Granite City Center freshman basketball player Al Johnson.

They were awarded "Honorable Mention" accolades. All will receive a certificate from the Press-Record.

IT WASN'T just the "home runs" Cotter counts as highlights this season. The singles, doubles and triples also were thrilling.

"All of them were fun," he said.

Cotter pointed out, however, "getting sixth at the state meet" was his biggest highlight.

"I'm thankful for what I did. I think I could've done better," Cotter added. "I'm thankful for what I got."

Cotter spoke long-distance Saturday morning from a dormitory at MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Ill. Cotter, along with teammate Vince Sleska, spent the weekend there, surveying the sights. Cotter liked what he saw.

"I've got my heart set on going here," he said.

Tuition is steep, Cotter said. The school, which enrolls 700, does not offer athletic scholarships since it is Division III.

A good student, Cotter said he hopes to enroll in MacMurray's pre-engineering program. He said he wants to be a mechanical engineer.

"I like it," he said. Cotter pointed out mechanical engineers can fix just about anything. "Cars, elevators," he said.

Asked if he's ever repaired either of the two, he laughed. "No, but if I had a sheet to go by, I could," he said.

LITTLE doubt he'd do whatever it took. A lover of pasta, in particular lasagna, Cotter made superior sacrifices to make weight. His weekly schedule included light eating on Tuesday, water only on Wednesday, and nothing Thursday and Friday.

He did eat Saturday, Sunday and Monday, though.

"I don't see how I ever did it," said Cotter, who now has "ballooned" to 118 pounds, the weight class he hopes to wrestle in at MacMurray.

Cotter said he wasn't able to meet with the school's wrestling coach, who was away recruiting.

"He sent me a letter during the season," Cotter said. "I filled out an application and left it on his desk."

So long as Jeff included the telephone number of Schmitt, who would tell MacMurray's wrestling coach — with feeling — all the good things Cotter accomplished. The Warriors' Little Big Man packed a powerful wallop.

MARK DONIFF (Granite City hockey) — The hockey Warriors were a team in the strictest sense. When their season ended, five players (Doniff, Chris Carden, Todd Hinterser, Dave Yurkovich, and Matt Laub) were within three points of the team scoring lead.

Two players, Carden and Yurkovich, were placed on the Mid-States Association All-Star team in selections made at the end of the regular season. When it was all over, however, it was Doniff who not only topped the Warriors in scoring (55 points) but who emerged as the team's clear-cut team leader. He did this thanks to a superlative "second season." Doniff led the Warriors during the playoffs with six goals and six assists.

Included was a hat trick against Chamaine and the winning goal against Parkway Central.

"Mark had an excellent season topped by a super playoff," Warrior coach Garry Henson said. As for Doniff's take charge play during the

PRESS-RECORD Monday SPORTS Champions! Warriors' fourth-quarter rally beats Kahoks First Regional Title Since 1971

EDWARDSVILLE — Mayhem and bedlam.

Both nouns, the two words best describe Granite City High School basketball team's come-from-behind 49-45 victory over Collinsville Friday night to win the Edwardsville Regional and capture their first post-season title in 14 years.

The mayhem occurred in the second half of the contest. First, the Kahoks victimized the Warriors in the third quarter and then the Warriors more than returned the favor in the fourth and final stanza to steal the win.

AS FOR the bedlam, that was the atmosphere in Joe E. Lucero Gymnasium after the contest. The Warriors and their fans flooded the floor, and within a minute after the game the nets at both ends of the court were removed and had become Warrior souvenirs.

Not since 1971 has a Warrior team been a regional winner. That was a year that the Warriors, coincidentally enough, were also Edwardsville Regional champions. Not only were they regional winners, but also sectional champions before they bowed out of the post-season state tournament to Paris in the super sectional.

THAT WAS a year when the Warriors finished fourth in the Southwestern Conference with a 6-6 league slate, but went to on surprise nearly everyone with their post-season performance.

But that's history. That was then. Friday night a new bunch of Warriors were writing history. They inscribed another line, another paragraph with each of their 49 points.

A Warrior victory Friday night

Spirit, Desire Key To Win Not just another ball game

EDWARDSVILLE — To say that basketball is a team sport is an understatement of the steepest kind.

Sort of like calling Friday night's Edwardsville Class AA Regional Basketball Championship match "just another game."

Those who were at Joe E. Lucero Gymnasium Friday know what kind of ball game it was. They saw and felt the ebb and flow of momentum which, in the end, favored the Warriors.

The reason for the Warrior victory, quite simply, was Granite City's effort — its athletes' and its fans' desire to win. The desire to win even when a victory seemed as impossible as a full-court jump shot.

IN ORDER of appearance, there was 5-foot 7-inch sophomore Tim Hogan. This little guy has a heart every bit as big as the basketball he so masterfully dribbles and shoots. Cotter. It was he who entered the game in the second quarter and would have been great enough, but to win it the way they did made for an evening Warrior fans will remember for a long time. At least another 14 years, although they may not be content to wait that long.

AFTER THE first quarter, the Warriors trailed the Kahoks 12-10 but came on in the second half to post a 26-24 lead by halftime.

At that point, the Warriors appeared to be gaining momentum. Of the Warriors' clearly beginning to win their way.

Collinsville managed to contain the Warriors' chief air attack in 6-foot 2-inch senior guard Jeff Gray, but not the rest of the Warriors. The Kahoks managed to take away the Warriors' long jump shot, but not the rest of their game.

Gray, who had been averaging 21 points per game but finished Friday's game with seven points, wouldn't have scored at all the first half had he not connected on a 15-foot jump shot with three seconds left.

Without Gray's outside attack, the Warriors turned inward, to 6-foot 9-inch senior center Don Stevanus.

AT THE intermission, Stevanus managed 10 of the Warriors' 26 points. He finished the game with 17 and was high-point man for both teams.

"I don't know why I play so well against Collinsville. My three best games this season have come against them, 18, 16 and in w 17 points. I wish we could play them all the time," the heighty senior said with a chuckle.

Jokes aside, Stevanus knows why he scores more when the Warriors play Collinsville.

"It's because they put so much pressure on Gilley (Jeff Gray). When our outside game's not working they get the ball to me inside. I helped bolster the Warriors to their halting lead.

A little guy, Hogan's got what it takes to play with the "big boys." His coast to coast dribble and then lay-up in the second quarter proved that.

"He put us back in the ball game that second quarter," Dede Ding said of Hogan. "He has a little 'sophomore-lis' but he'll get over that."

AND WHAT about Don Stevanus? A lot of guys quake at the thought of playing Collinsville. There's a certain Kahok mystique which b-fuddles many high school cagers. But not Stevanus.

This 6-foot 9-inch tree has played his three best games this season against you know who, scoring 18, 16 and 17 points in each Warrior-Kahok matchup.

Says Stevanus: "I wish we could play them (Collinsville) all the time. Then, of course, there's Jeff Gray. Jeff wasn't able to 'do his normal thing' against the Kahoks but he did owe a lot of the credit to Jeff and Joe (5-foot 10-inch junior guard Gray). They did a great job of getting the ball to me."

EVER WITH Stevanus' continued efforts in the third quarter the Warriors virtually let the game slip from their grasp. The momentum which had swung their way in the waning moments of the second quarter now belonged to the Kahoks.

And for Collinsville, it wasn't a fleeting momentum. It lasted the ENTIRE third quarter. Granite City had seen a two-point halftime lead slip to an 11-point deficit by third quarter's end.

The Warriors' only points in that quarter was a bucket by Stevanus, underneath. And even that didn't come until the quarter was nearly half over.

The difference in that third quarter was not Collinsville's offense, but its persistent, pestering defense.

THE WARRIORS committed eight of their 18 total turnovers in the third stanza. For momentum, the Warriors attempted to bring the ball apocryph in the quarter and 13 times they were denied.

"Our defense was great tonight," said Kahok coach Gene Catalpa after the game. "We're not good shooters and we don't always take care of the ball, but we sure heck played a fine defensive ball game tonight."

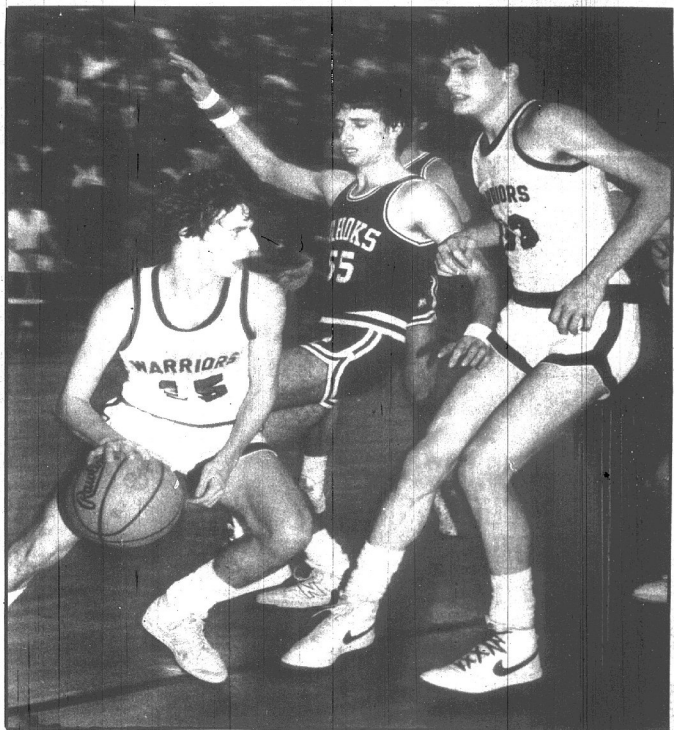

"Our guys have nothing to be ashamed of. We played a great defense. The best ever maybe."

Collinsville's defense was awesome.

And no one knew it more than Warrior Coach Don Deterding.

"FOR THOSE who like defensive ball games that was one for them."

GALLOPING GRAY. Granite City High School's Joe Gray drives his way toward the Warrior goal during the third quarter of Friday night's regional championship basketball game in Edwardsville. Gray didn't score on his attempt, but did shine in the closing moments of the ball game as he sank crucial free throws to pace the Warriors to their first regional title in 14 years.

Warriors SWC champs Catalpa gracious in defeat

EDWARDSVILLE — It's not always easy to be gracious in defeat.

But Collinsville High School basketball coach Gene Catalpa was following his team's 49-45 loss Friday to Granite City High School's Warriors.

Catalpa, the successor to legendary coach Vergil Fletcher and now in his seventh season, was quoted in the Edwardsville Intelligence as saying Friday's game "would determine the real Southwestern Conference champion."

Having split with the Warriors this season, Catalpa and the Kahoks were looking forward to the matchup as much as the Warriors were.

"SURE, I still feel that way," Catalpa said when asked if he felt the Warriors were clearly the Southwestern Conference champions.

"I'm not going to change my mind just because we lost. Granite City played well and we didn't play as well as I thought we could have."

"We played excellent defense, but sometimes that's not enough," the Kahoks' coach said.

"What can I say. We finished the season with identical conference records. We both lost to the same teams and we both took a share of the conference championship," Catalpa said.

"I HAVE no complaints about the loss. We played a good team on a neutral site with IHSA appointed referees... You can't get more impartial than that."

The Catalpa's graces began to come through.

"I wish them (Granite City) well. They represent our conference, our regional as well as our area. I would like to see them go to Champaign and win it all. Nothing would please me more."

See, and some of you thought class could only be found in the ritziest of places. Sometimes you can even find it in a lockerroom or even standing outside.

Win Vandalia Sectional Trojans are sectional champs

By JAMES BLASINGAME
of the Press-Record

VANDALIA — The good ones always seem to have something in reserve. Popeye, when things got a little sticky, would pull out a can of spinach, and you knew it was just a matter of time before he had the enemy on the run. Likewise, when the Madison High School basketball Trojans find things too close for comfort, they unleash their full-court press.

Friday night in the championship game of the Vandalia Sectional, the Trojans trailed the host Vandals 15-12 at the end of the first quarter. Madison had gone out to an 8-4 lead, but four baskets by Vandalia's Tom Dooley and a delirious hometown crowd spurred the Vandals to their third-point edge.

In the second period, the Trojans showed a pattering, three-quarter-court defense press. The press didn't bother the Vandals immediately, but it gradually began to wear them down.

The teams traded baskets for the first five minutes of the quarter, before Madison's Reggie Banks deposited an offensive rebound bucket that sent the Trojans in front 22-21 with 3:41 remaining in the half.

After the Vandals called a timeout, Dooley, who led Vandalia with 21 points, canned another turn-around jumper to give Vandalia its last lead at 23-22.

Madison guard Deloyd 'Boog' Williams converted a three-point play, and the Trojans pulled out their can of spinach.

Madison made three steals and forced three Vandalia turnovers in the next two and one-half minutes, as the Trojans' one-point edge inflated to a nine-point cushion by the intermission.

Banks poured in 18 first-half points and finished with 28.

"We had six turnovers in the second quarter, and a lot of those were caused by the press. It took us out of the ball game for a while, and we never really got back into it."

In the second half, Vandalia could get no closer than their nine-point halftime deficit. The Trojans led by 14 after three quarters, and coasted to a 23-point win.

Afterward, Madison coach Rodney Watson, enjoying his first sectional championship, dished out praise for his players and their defensive efforts.

"The kids have really been playing super the last two weeks. How about Reggie Young coming off the bench? Darnell Marshall coming in at a key time and playing well... Valentine picks up the slack. Everybody is making a contribution."

"THE DEFENSE we showed in this tournament is the best defense we've played all year. They're reaching down, and they're concentrating."

Banks agreed. "I think our defense is tremendous," said the senior center. "That's our morale thing for each game. Good things have been happening since we started playing defense."

Translated, those good things are baskets. When the Trojans' defense is executing, their offense isn't far behind.

Williams got the Madison offense rolling in the second quarter, slithering through the Vandalia defense for driving 5-footers or dishing off to Banks or forward James Bennett for lay-ins.

"Deloyd does a lot of things you can't coach," smiled Watson. "Sometimes he does things that make my hair turn gray, but if it's a success, I can live with gray hair."

Williams finished the game with 18 points, as well as directing the Trojan press.

"He's our quarterback," Watson continued. "Montana is the man for San Francisco. Marino does it for the Dolphins, and 'Boog' is our floor leader."

AND NOW does it feel to win a sectional championship?

"We got here last year (when Watson was coach of Coulterville High School). I guess coaches always have that stigma. 'Can I do it?'"

Watson said, "You like to get farther than the year before, but the kids do it. They go out and sweat. They should get the credit."

"We're playing better than ever before, and now's the time come on and play your best."

The Trojans will have to play their best in the super sectional to knock off powerful Flora High School, who at 28-1 are ranked third in the state.

But Madison "already has one believer."

"I THINK Madison will give Flora all they want," said Denton.

Flora's big, but Madison is quick and they play good defense."

The Flora contest also holds additional incentive for the Trojans.

Flora defeated Madison 62-42 in last year's super sectional game.

"It's a payback," said Watson.

"We've gotta pay them back. That's what we're gonna think about this week — it's a motivational force."

The Trojans will travel to Charleston to meet Flora on Tuesday night.

CHARLES MILTON (Venice basketball) — The 6-2 Milton participated in practice the way he performed in games. All-out. Maybe that was why Red Devil coach Clinton Harris, Jr. considered Milton the team's most valuable player.

"He definitely was one of our hardest workers," said Harris.

Milton's statistics reflected his consistency: he averaged 11 points and seven rebounds per contest.

It was Milton who scored the winning basket in the Red Devil's 83-81 overtime victory against Metro-East, when Venice charged back from an 19-point fourth quarter deficit.

Begin Regionals Tonight Girls downed by Flyerettes

By JOE THOMPSON
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The girls' basketball team of Granite City High School regional play against Edwardsville tonight in Edwardsville. Tip-off time is 8:30 p.m.

Odds are longer than Cheryl Miller's reach the game will mark the Warriors' season finale.

The girls thrashed the Warriors earlier in the year, 70-33. In their defense, the Warriors played without an injured Alicia Melton. Still, victory appears uncertain.

But you never know. When it comes to the Warriors, it's best to expect the unexpected.

THEY WERE in top form against the Flyerettes. Cox, dominating play inside and capitalizing on nifty feeds from Brandt and senior Robyn Morlon, scored 12 points in the first half. She rolled in five of eight shots from the field.

Combined with 12 points from Melton, who blistered the sets in six of 12 tries from long range, the Warriors pulled off a huge helping of first half magic.

Reality in the presence of Flyerettes Pamela Jones and Charlette Green took over the second half. Jones and Green ended with 22 and 21 points respectively as the Flyerettes took off to an 81-55 victory and upgraded their record to 14-7.

Champions

Deterding said. "Sure, we made some bad passes in the third quarter, but Collinsville's defense was excellent. I don't know if I've ever seen a team play better defense than that," Deterding said.

As the fourth quarter began, Collinsville tried to maintain the momentum it had monopolized upon in the previous quarter. When it became apparent that they could not, the Kahoks began to slow the pace of the game. And that's when the Warriors began to make up for their previous quarter's shortcomings.

TRAILING 39-28 when the fourth quarter began, the Warriors went right to work. Stevanus took a pass from Joe Gray and not-so-politely put it through the hoop.

The changing tide was clearly favoring the Warriors, and they seemed to sense it. Just as Collinsville had dominated the third quarter, the Warriors had begun to take control of the fourth.

A ball escaped from the Kahoks' Tony Ellis and found its way to Joe Gray. Gray brought the ball down to the Warriors' end of the court where he passed off to Stevanus' towering figure underneath. The heightly senior glanced a shot off the glass and through.

FOLLOWING a Collinsville timeout, the Warriors continued their attack on the Kahok lead. Ellis managed to improve the Kahoks' lead by sinking both ends of a one-and-one situation, but Kurt Hylla returned the favor to put the Warriors back to within five, 36-41, with just over five minutes remaining.

About a minute later, Jeff Gray sank a free throw to move the Warriors to within four, 37-41, but Collinsville's Larry Liner put the Kahoks back out in front by six.

The seesaw battle for points continued with the Warriors slowly gaining on the Kahok lead. Fouled by Liner, Jeff Gray put Granite City to within two, 41-43 by sinking a pair from the charity stripe.

THEN CAME Collinsville's heart-breaker.

With 2:46 remaining, the Kahoks' Jeff LeCuyer drove in for what appeared to be a basket. Referee Ken Thaxton, however, ruled that LeCuyer had committed a charging foul before he attempted the shot. The basket was disallowed and the Warriors still trailed by two points.

Jeff Gray narrowed the Kahok lead to a single point when he connected on the first of two free throws with just over two minutes remaining.

By now Lucco Gymnasium was rolling reverberating with noise, most from Warrior fans anticipating the Warrior comeback.

Following a Collinsville timeout with 1:37 remaining, the Kahoks were content to pass the ball from the point to the wings, looking for the best scoring opportunity.

THE KAHOKS executed a stall for nearly a minute before Jeff Smith attempted a pass to Liner. The pass was soft, soft enough for the Warrior Jerry Paul to knock down and charge upcourt.

"I saw him (Smith) lost his (Liner's) way. It looked like he was going to lob it and if so I thought I could knock it down, break the seam and be gone. So, I went for it," Paul said.

He did. Paul tipped the ball upcourt, gained control of dribbled in for the bucket. Paul, whose uniform number is 43, put the Warriors ahead, 44-43, with 43 seconds remaining in the game.

"ALL I was hoping was that I wouldn't miss (the lay-up.) As I dribbled in all I thought about was laying it in there right. I can't miss this one," I thought."

He didn't.

It was the play of the ball game — the one single play that put the Warriors over the top while simultaneously snuffing out the Kahoks.

"The biggest play of the ball game?" Deterding said repeating the question back to the five reporters standing in the Warriors' locker room after the game.

"It had to be Paul's play, the steal and then the layup. That had to be the biggest play. It was the one that put us over," Deterding said.

Paul entered the game when Stevanus fouled out with 3:44 remaining.

IT WAS either Jerry or Tom Taylor," Deterding said of the substitution. "Jerry's a sepior and he did play well in the Roxana game, so I went with him. It was evidently the right decision. Sometimes you feel like the good lord is looking down on us."

Collinsville had the opportunity to tie, and even retake the lead, with 26 seconds remaining. Ellis stepped up to the line to shoot a one-and-one free throw. His first shot bounced high off the back of the rim and in to the hands of Joe Gray.

Gray dribbled 10 feet before he was fouled.

WHERE Ellis had failed just seconds before, the younger Gray brother didn't. He walked up to the line, bounced the ball twice and sank both attempts, giving the Warriors a three-point, 46-43 lead.

"We needed the points," Gray said after the game. "I felt like we could come back on them — I didn't have any doubt. But I will admit my stomach was turning when it came time to make the free throws."

Joe Gray was called upon again. This time there was just 12 seconds remaining in the game and Collinsville had closed to within two, 46-44.

Just as systematic and flawless as his performance was moments before, so was Joe Gray's encore at the stripe. Bouncing the ball twice he lofted the first and then the second through the hoop giving the Warriors a four-point lead.

In the waning seconds, Ellis and then Hylla swapped free throws to end the scoring and the game.

So much for the mayhem. Now for the bedlam.

Sport banquets March 18 & 20

The Granite City High School Boosters Club has scheduled two nights, March 18 and 20, as the dates for its winter sports banquets.

Beginning at 6 p.m. on both nights, the Warriors' girls' basketball and wrestling teams will be honored on Monday, March 18. On Wednesday, March 20, the Warriors will honor their basketball team.

riors most crucial and clutch situation of their season, Joe Gray was perfect, hitting all four of his free throws in the final minute of play.

He had something to prove. With each of his shot that pierced the net, Joe Gray was making a statement. He wanted everyone to know that this Gray too is capable of hitting free throws in the clutch.

AND WHAT about Scott Cant? He was his usual self strategically placed in the middle of the Warrior game plan.

Scoring six points, Cant helped rebound and contributed to Collinsville's 17 turnovers, six of which were committed in the final stanza.

Ask Cant about how he feels about winning the rubber game against Collinsville and he'll tell you.

"Rubber game, what rubber game. I only played in two," Cant said with a chuckle. "Seriously, it feels pretty good. I'm glad we're able to win it. I think we proved something tonight."

THEN THERE'S Jerry Paul. This guy alone speaks of the depth on the Warriors' bench. The Warriors' sixth man, he filled in admirably when Stevanus fouled out Friday with just under four minutes remaining.

And not only did he fill in, but it was he who made the biggest defensive play of the ball game when he intercepted a Kahok pass and dashed the length of the court to put the Warriors ahead to stay.

It was a play that put a little more excitement in the minds of Warrior hands and a few more gray hairs on coach Don Deterding's head.

"I just thanked God when Paul made that interception. It was that interception that made the difference in the ball game," the Warrior coach said.

HAD PAUL not intercepted the pass and Collinsville had scored on that possession, Deterding said he was going to tell his team to begin fouling.

"I was that close to tell them to start fouling," Deterding said. "When Jerry came up with that ball, the whole game changed."

And, according to Deterding, Paul wasn't the only factor that turned the game in Granite City's favor.

"The fans were excellent," Deterding said. "I don't know if I've ever seen them more supportive of our basketball team. I'm sure our fans even outnumbered the Collinsville fans."

DETERDING said he felt a bad about chiding Warrior fans during a pep assembly Friday morning. "I told them they were uneducated when it came to supporting a team, but was I ever wrong. The kids, even the grown ups were stupendous. They really responded."

With the victory the Warriors have earned a berth into this week's Collinsville Sectional Tournament. The Warriors will play Alton Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Alton won the Wood River Regional Friday.

Today Sectional tickets on sale

Carruth discusses ramifications of Cable Tele-Communications Act

By SUSAN SIGNA-GO-WEICH
of the Press-Record

Lon Carruth, former general manager of South-West Cable TV, Ltd., said last week that the Cable Tele-Communications Act of 1984 may "open Pandora's box."

"The cable act, which will go into full effect on Jan. 29, 1988, will deregulate cable companies. Local governing bodies will no longer have a say in what price is charged for basic cable service."

CARRUTH SAID this deregulation may result in some of the non-premium programming stations seeking a network fee. In other words, stations that were once provided free to the cable company may decide to charge a fee to the cable company for the service. This would result in the cable company's need to increase the charge for basic cable service. "This may turn into a vicious cycle," he said.

He added that that cable company is not pleased with some of the possibilities of the cable act, but he said the prime motive of the company, like any company, is to make a profit. "People have the wrong impression of cable companies," he said. "People think we're rolling in the dough and that's not so. We have a sizeable payroll and utility bills just like everyone else."

Carruth said the company is taking into consideration that increases in cable charges will cause the loss of some customers. "We realize that customers may come to a point where they're going to say that that cable service is not worth it," he said. "We know not everyone will be happy."

CARRUTH SAID another ramifications of the cable act will deal with franchise fees. Currently cities are allowed to charge the cable company three percent of the gross receipts. In some cases, cities are allowed to charge five percent of the gross receipts if they can prove that they need the extra income to handle the administration of the cable franchise.

According to Carruth, the new cable act will allow cities to charge cable companies five percent of their receipts without providing a need for the extra income. However, the cable companies will be able to turn around and access this extra charge to the consumer.

He said the extra charge, if instituted, would appear as a line item on the customer bill—termed a two percent franchise fee. "This is really a Catch 22 situation," he said. "It would help municipalities, but it would only increase customer bills even more."

CARRUTH ALSO discussed the legality of satellite dishes. He said that under the new cable act, the purchase of satellite dishes are legal, but that previously, they had been interpreted as illegal.

He said one of the reasons owners may have not been prosecuted before is because cable companies do not feel the earth stations are a real threat to their business. Carruth said because of the price tag on the dishes, few persons have purchased them.

He said he thinks the biggest threat to cable companies today is the video tape recorder. "The copyright laws in this area are so vague," he said. "The recording of movies on television and cable stations is already beginning to have an effect on pay television."

CARRUTH SAID he is looking for some legislation in this area to solve the problem.

News Notes

The jury trial of Barbara Guswelle Boyle has been scheduled to begin Monday, March 25, in Edwardsville. She is charged with the murders of her husband, Ronald Guswelle, in 1979, and his parents, Arthur and Vernita Guswelle, in 1977. Madison County Circuit Judge P.J. O'Neill has denied a motion from Mrs. Boyle's attorney, F. Lee Bailey, to dismiss the charges because of "prosecutorial misconduct" by former State's Attorney Don Weber. O'Neill stated that he will rule on whether Mrs. Boyle can be tried fairly in Madison County when the jury is questioned. She and Glennon Engleman and Robert Hardy are accused of participation in a murder-for-profit scheme.

River Cemeht Company has filed two lawsuits in St. Clair County Circuit Court demanding more than $600,000 from H.H. Hall Construction Company of East St. Louis and the Illinois Department of Transportation. The lawsuit alleges that the defendants owe the money for two shipments of cement that was to be used for Interstate 255 construction. Hall Construction was contracted to construct the interstate, but the company has gone out of business.

MADISON WARRANT

IBHE approves increase for EIU budget

The Illinois Board of Higher Education has approved a recommended operating budget of $37,884,000 for Eastern Illinois University for 1985-86.

If it is approved by the General Assembly and Governor Thompson, Eastern would receive an increase of $3,370,400 over its current 1984-85 operating budget of $34,513,600.

"THE NEARLY 10 percent increase in Eastern's operating budget for next year," said EIU President Stan Rives, "is the highest percentage increase for a single institution being recommended for the public universities."

"That is where we should be because Eastern remains the most cost-effective public university in Illinois and, as a result, is underfunded by more than $3.2 million. The IBHE has recognized this situation in making its 1985-86 budget recommendations and we are pleased that they have done so."

The recommended increases include $2,041,400 for an average eight percent faculty-staff increase, $70,900 for price increases, $80,500 for maintaining additional space provided in a Physical Plant building addition constructed this year and for the purchase of fuel for the coal conversion project, and $300,100 in program improvement funds.

THE UNIVERSITY'S base budget is reduced by $34,600 as a result of being above the two percent undergraduate tuition waiver level established by the Board of Higher Education.

Among the items included in the $350,100 for program improvements are $300,000 for purchase of instructional laboratory equipment, $275,000 for additional faculty positions in high student demand programs, $207,100 for improving the quality of undergraduate programs, $108,000 for student assistance and teacher education programs, and $40,000 for the purchase of computer software.

The Board of Higher Education also approved $635,100 for repair and renovation work at Eastern, which includes $572,400 for fire prevention work and $62,700 for an energy conservation project. Also approved was a $1,353,500 capital project to rehabilitate McAfee Gymnasium, including a complete rehabilitation of the mechanical and electrical systems in the building.

"WE ARE generally quite pleased with this budget recommendation, which will allow us to address some unmet needs, particularly in the areas of faculty-staff salary increases and updating instructional laboratory equipment," said Rives.

These budget recommendations for Eastern now go to the General Assembly, with the House and Senate holding hearings over the next two months. Legislative action is expected to be completed in June.

3,000 to participate in Senior Citizens fair at SIUE

At least 3,000 senior citizens from southwestern Illinois and the St. Louis area are expected to participate in the Senior Citizens Fair, Monday, March 18, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Anthony Traxler, director of the Gerontology Program at the university, said many new activities are planned for this year's fair, which is scheduled from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the University Center. Included will be a wide variety of exhibits, displays, entertainment, services and informational booths.

AMONG THE dignitaries scheduled to attend are Lt. Gov. and Mrs. George Ryan, who will address the group and kick off the ballroom dancing at 1 p.m., and the director of the Illinois Department on Aging, Janet S. O'Connell, who will participate in the opening ceremonies at 9 a.m. long with university officers and a unit from the campus detachment of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps.

Traxler said more than 20 groups of entertainers, including senior citizens, faculty and students, and ranging from bands to soloists, will entertain throughout the day. A new feature of this year's fair will be a fashion show featuring models wearing their own creations.

Four workshops are scheduled, including "Senior Employment Opportunities" and "Food Facts and Health" from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. and "Medicare: What It Does and Does Not Do" and "Drugs and Aging: Problems and Pitfalls," from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

OTHER FEATURES of the fair will include: exhibits of arts and crafts; information tables dealing with social services available to the elderly, and preventive health screenings, including hearing tests, dental checks, glaucoma tests, diabetes screenings and blood pressure readings, all provided without charge. Seniors wishing to take the test for diabetes are urged to refrain from food for several hours before the test, Traxler said.

Tours of the museum will be conducted by the University Ambassadors, including visits to the anthropology teaching museum and the Sullivan architectural ornament collection. Also available will be campus bus tours, and shuttle bus service will be provided from the campus parking lots.

Special displays and activities are planned by international students, and seniors may participate in University Center recreational activities, such as bowling and billiards, for half-price.

MUSIC FOR ballroom dancing will be provided by the Frank Cherry Orchestra, a perennial favorite of the fair. Several luncheon arrangements, including cafeteria service, are being planned, and seniors are encouraged to purchase tickets in advance for the chicken and dumpling special in the University Club restaurant or the special box lunch. Reservations may be made and other information may be secured by calling the Gerontology Program office at SIUE, 1-692-3454.

Tower Lake preschoolers hop for MDA

Students enrolled in the Tower Lake Preschool at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will conduct their first annual Easter Bunny Hop to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA), March 14 and 15 at the Tower Lake Commons Building.

"We expect to have 20 children participating in the Bunny Hop," said Debbie Diuguid, director of the preschool. "The children are being asked to solicit sponsors from friends, relatives and neighbors based upon the number of times they will hop in a two-minute period. All money raised will be donated to the Muscular Dystrophy Association."

MISS DIUGUID explained that MDA is a partnership of scientists and private citizens, dedicated to the conquest of 40 neuromuscular diseases. In addition to research, MDA also provides for the comprehensive care of those who have various neuromuscular diseases.

MDA does not receive government support and relies solely on private, voluntary contributions raised through events like the Bunny Hop and the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon. Anyone requesting further information about MDA, its programs, or the diseases it covers may contact the office in St. Charles, Mo., 1-314-947-3331.

SEMC offers sessions to help children protect themselves

Friday is the deadline for interested Quad-City-area parents to sign up for "Children Need to Know," a two-part safety program for children and their parents being presented by St. Elizabeth Medical Center, in cooperation with Health Education Systems, Inc. (HES).

Primarily, the program will focus on helping children protect themselves from sexual assault and abduction, according to Marilyn Miller, director of HES and seminar instructor.

"Recognizing that parents and other caretakers are not usually present to assist in preventing sexual assault or abduction, children must be adequately prepared to stop assaults at or before their inception. Only training can give children the ability to act on their own behalf in the face of someone who is older, more knowledgeable, more powerful and, perhaps, very important to them," the instructor said.

Mrs. Miller, who taught school for 15 years, has a bachelor's degree in education from Washington University and a master's degree in education from Webster University.

She has made her program available to schools, PTAs, hospitals, churches, daycare centers and other groups throughout the metropolitan area.

"The 'Children Need to Know' program has been presented to approximately 1,000 children in the metropolitan area and it is hoped to have a similar program available for junior and senior high school students in the near future.

"What we are trying to do is create an awareness. We want children to be able to speak up for themselves when someone is touching them in a way they do not like. If they can stop it at the time, it won't escalate into a sexual assault," she explained.

The first part of the program, the parents' seminar, will meet on Wednesday, March 20, from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in Paschal Hall at the medical center. During this session, the issues discussed will include sexual assault, who the offenders are and how they operate, specific prevention techniques for children and what parents can do to reinforce them.

"Adults often feel uneasy talking about such sensitive topics, or would prefer to shield their children altogether from its existence. Once parents understand the extent of the problem, they are often confused as to how to teach their children to avoid an offense they may be too young to comprehend. They may have told their children not to take rides from strangers or open the door when alone, but more training is necessary," Mrs. Miller said.

Participation in the parents' seminar is recommended, but not required for parents whose children are in grades one through six and who plan to participate in the children's workshop. However, preschool children will not be allowed to register unless their parents attend the parents' seminar or have a doctor's note stating an earlier date.

The children's workshops will be Saturday, March 23, in Paschal Hall. Preschool children will meet at 9 a.m. Four-year-old preschoolers will meet at 10 a.m. and preschool 5-year-olds will meet at 11 a.m. The sessions for first and second graders will be from 12:30 to 2 p.m., third and fourth graders will meet from 2 to 3:30 p.m. and fifth and sixth graders will meet from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

During these sessions, the seminar conductor will use role playing to teach the youngsters and lead rap sessions with the fourth, fifth and sixth graders.

"We want them to know that they are old enough to be responsible for themselves and make decisions. What we are doing is giving children something they have always wanted—the power to have control over their bodies," Mrs. Miller said.

Although she is candid in the parents' seminar, she does not use strong terms, such as molest, abduct, kidnap or sexual abuse in training children.

"We want parents to feel comfortable that we're not going to induce fear or give their children information they do not need. Fear will not keep youngsters safe and is more damaging than an incident. When children are afraid, they are not able to function as well. They need skills, not fear. I teach children to take care of themselves," she added.

Cost for the parents' seminar is $5 per person and $15 per child for the children's workshop. A limited number of scholarships are available for the children's workshop through the SEMC Social Work Department.

The deadline for registering is Friday, March 15. More information is available from the SEMC Public Relations Department at 798-3167.

Simon calls for auto import restraints

U.S. Senator Paul Simon has called on President Ronald Reagan to reconsider his decision to discontinue the voluntary auto import restraint agreement with Japan.

Simon predicted "serious economic repercussions" that will result from the removal of the import restraint agreement with Japan. "The voluntary restraint program was very effective in reducing the number of Japanese cars imported to this country and provided a lift for American automakers. Considering the current outrageous trade deficits, the artificially strong dollar and the current budget deficits, the president's decision could prove to be disastrous," Simon stated.

He explained that the high federal deficit has contributed to producing a dollar with unrealistic strength against the Japanese yen. This puts American manufacturers at a serious disadvantage in the world market. "We need to make serious studies of the effects of that dollar. Until we accomplish that goal, we need the voluntary restraints. Our balance of trade with Japan is already way out of line and the president's decision only serves to aggravate all of our economic problems," he said.

"President Reagan's decision to lift voluntary restraints is the wrong one. American automakers have made great strides in the last few years and now is not the time to pull the rug out from under them," he concluded.

Symposium on child abuse scheduled

Experts in the legal, social and medical aspects of child abuse and neglect will be the key speakers at a two-day symposium on child abuse and neglect in Champaign this Thursday and Friday.

The symposium is sponsored by the Illinois State Bar Association's Young Lawyers' Division Committee on Child Abuse and Neglect, the University of Illinois College of Law and Family Service of Champaign County. It will be in the law school auditorium.

The program is designed to provide training for state's attorneys, judges and private law practitioners, as well as social service, law enforcement and hospital personnel, according to Catherine M. Ryan of Chicago, program moderator for the Young Lawyers' Division. "The symposium is intended to give practical training to those people whose duties include the responsibility of detecting, reporting, prosecuting and treating child abuse," she said. "Featured speaker for the luncheon will be D. N. Kathleen Buietow, pediatrician with the Carle Clinic Association and acting director of the Department of Pediatrics at the University of Illinois."

The symposium runs for two days, including course materials and luncheons. Registration may be arranged by contacting the Illinois State Bar Association's Department of Membership Services toll-free at 1-800-252-8903. Also, those attending may wish to attend the first annual Margaret E. Tipton Dinner Lecture, Thursday evening at the Chancellor Hotel in Champaign. Lou Gadow, executive director of Family Advocate, Inc., of Rockford, will be the featured speaker. Reservations are $22 per person, including the dinner. Inquiries may be made by contacting Family Service of Champaign County at 1-217-384-1911.

Flooding closes some state parks

At least six state parks and conservation areas already have closed indefinitely because of flooding, and the Illinois Department of Conservation sites are expected to follow suit in the days ahead, according to Ray Norbut, DOC's superintendent of parks and recreation.

The six flooded properties include Anderson Lake and Rice Lake Conservation Areas in Fulton County; Hamilton County Conservation Area near McLeansboro; Des Plaines Conservation Area south of Joliet in Will County; Eldon Hazlet State Park on Lake Carlyle in Clinton County; and Powerton Lake State Park and Wildlife Area near Pekin in Tazewell County.

Norbut said similar conditions are developing at properties along rivers throughout the state. Although there may be exceptions, it is probable that all dog trials and other activities scheduled at these properties have been cancelled, Norbut said. Persons interested in such scheduled events should contact site headquarters in advance to ascertain the status of the activities.

Norbut also recommended that people planning a visit to any state park during the next few weeks should call the state first.

Patent workshop planned Wednesday

A patent workshop for investors, businessmen, patent attorneys, students and scientists is slated for Wednesday, March 13, in Springfield.

As a newly-designated Patent Depository, the Illinois State Library is co-sponsoring the workshop with the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs and Small Business Development Center on how to research patent information.

Representatives of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office will conduct the workshop from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Prairie Capital Convention Center in Springfield.

'Debate' continues on Chouteau debate

The "debate" over whether candidates for supervisor of Chouteau Township should have a debate continued this week as the incumbent supervisor, Walter "Dick" Sparks, again challenged challenger Morris Miles to "debate on all the issues before the general public on a man-to-man basis."

Judging of entries is set to begin at 9 a.m. March 16 at the Continental Regency Hotel, Peoria, in conjunction with the Fifth Annual Illinois Valley Wildlife Art Show. Bloomer said, "The Illinois Valley Show runs March 16 and 17. After judging, Salmon Stamp art entries will be on display to the public throughout the Illinois Valley Show."

Artists have until 5 p.m. Wednesday, March 13, to submit entries in competition to select a design for the 1986 Illinois Salmon Stamp, according to Curtis Bloomer, Conservation department coordinator for the contest.

Runs toll, runs from police

Colin P. Butler, 27, of 812 Third St., Venice, was arrested by Venice Police at the intersection of 10th and Cole Street in St. Louis after leading police on a high speed chase. The incident started when Butler's auto allegedly ran the toll booth on the McKinley Bridge.

When Butler was first apprehended by police, a bridge employee allegedly identified him as the driver who ran the toll. Butler was told he was under arrest and police asked him to follow them in his car, to the police station.

Instead, Butler allegedly pulled around the two police cars and proceeded through the automatic toll booth in the westbound lane, heading for St. Louis. Two police cars gave pursuit with red lights and siren on, but Butler allegedly would not pull over.

Butler crossed the bridge and continued west across the Collinsville Overpass of Interstate 70, then turning on to the entrance ramp to southbound Interstate 70. Both police cars continued pursuit, chasing Butler's vehicle at speeds in excess of 80 miles per hour. Butler exited the interstate at the 10th Street exit and continued south on 10th Street, police said. At the intersection of 10th and Cole streets, Butler pulled his vehicle over to a curb, exited the car and stood next to the driver's door.

Forces necessary to effect his arrest, officers reported. He was charged with failure to pay the toll, fleeing from police, disobeying the order of a police officer and driving with an expired license.

Butler pleaded guilty to the charges and was fined $275.

Youth charged in Pontoon burglaries

Pontoon Beach Police have solved four recent burglaries in that village with the arrest of a 17-year-old youth.

Last week, village police formally charged Eric Wingrove, 17, of Kasperberg Park, with four counts of residential burglary and police are expecting that number of burglaries to go as high as nine.

"Actually, he's admitted to more (burglaries), but we're waiting for additional charges to return from the state attorney's office," said Pontoon Beach Police Chief Chet Ballew.

Wingrove, who is being held in lieu of $80,000 bond, has been charged with the burglaries of the Vera Watson apartment, 4036 Kathy Drive, Apt. 4, the Russell Schuessler apartment, 4018 Kathy Drive, Apt. 3, the Carol Watson residence, 3806 John Glenn Drive, and the Dennis Barnhart residence, 60 Kasperberg Park.

According to the report of the incidents, Wingrove allegedly burglarized the Schuessler and Barnhart residences on the same day, March 4. The Vera Watson burglary was reported to police on Jan. 26 while the Carol Watson burglary was reported on Feb. 26. The two Watson families are not related.

Venice man charged in Clark burglary

A Venice man has been charged with the burglary Thursday, Feb. 28, at the Clark service station on Route 111 south of Routes 162 in Pontoon Beach.

At 5:50 a.m. that date, Pontoon Beach Patrolman Michael Crouch responded to the burglar alarm at the station. Upon his arrival, he noticed a brown station wagon parked in the vacant lot adjacent to the gas station.

Standing next to the car, Crouch alleged seeing Donald Craig, 27, of 108 Abbott St., Venice, approach.

According to Crouch's report of the incident, Craig had taken as many as 80 cartons of cigarettes from the gas station. The report said that Craig had used a galvanized garbage can to break a glass window and gain access to the station.

Later that day, Craig was charged with one count of burglary and Associate Judge Philip J. Rarik set his bond at $15,000.

TWO SOLICITORS CHARGED

Thomas D. Elliott, 23, of New Baden, Ill., and Steven M. Martin, 25, of St. Louis, were both charged with soliciting without a permit at 4:05 p.m. Thursday. The pair was allegedly selling luggage in the vicinity of Johnson Road and Terrace Lane. They were released after each posted $102 cash bail.

Wade James to retire after 38 years with school district

By SUSANNE INDELICATO of the Press-Record

Wade James, assistant superintendent of schools in Madison, has announced his retirement from the school district, effective July 29, after 38 years in the district.

James submitted a letter of resignation to the Madison School Board Thursday night. The board members "reluctantly" approved the request for retirement.

"I KNOW WE'VE talked about this in the past," School Board President Paul Bargiel commented, "but I was hoping I'd never have to see this letter."

James stated in his letter, "I've been privileged to have seen many changes in educational practices in our district over the years, some good, others questionable, but always positive. I believe with intent to improve the educational acumen of Madison school students."

Retiring Illinois Superintendent of Education Donald Gill, who will serve as chairman of the Division of Education for Stetson University in Deland, Fla., beginning in the fall semester, will speak at the Madison County School Board/School Administrators meeting on Wednesday, March 13, at Holiday Inn, Edwardsville, on the topic, "Out Of The Frying Pan and Under the Sun Lamp."

All school board members and school administrators in Madison County are invited to attend the dinner and program at this annual event, sponsored by Harold L. Briggs, the Regional Superintendent of Schools of Madison County.

Gill steered the educational reform movement in Illinois and is expected to provide strong guidance for the education programs offered at Stetson, the oldest chartered university in Florida.

Gill is a native of O'Fallon, Ill.,

James indicated that he hopes to have state reports completed by June 28 and then take the 20 days of vacation time he has earned, bringing his retirement date to July 29.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT John Palchett told the board that he has asked James to act as a consultant after his replacement is named, in an effort to acquaint the replacement with the responsibilities of the school's assistant superintendent.

James was raised in Pennsylvania and received his bachelor of science degree in education from Cheyney State Teachers' College in Cheyney, Pa., in 1941.

His master's degree was earned in 1951 at the University of Illinois, and he has earned additional credits at U of I and Illinois State University in Normal.

HE BECAME AN elementary school teacher at Danbar School in Madison in 1947 and also coached elementary school basketball at Danbar until being named Dunbar

In 1969, James assumed the post of assistant superintendent of schools. Active in community services and programs, James is a past member of the executive board of the Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America, the United Way board, the Mental Health board, the Salvation Army board and the Madison-Venice Rotary.

HE IS A member of the Bethel A.M.E. Church, the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People) and Coordinated Youth Services. He and his wife, Hilda, have a son, Harold, in Minneapolis.

Pontoon Beach

Four village trustees run unopposed in April election

Four Pontoon Beach Village Board trustees are hoping to be re-elected during the April 2 election. As members of the Village Improvement Party, the four face no opposition in reclaiming their trustee positions.

Robert D. Abel

Seeking re-election to his fourth year post, Pontoon Beach Trustee Robert D. Abel says he hopes to pursue annexation of properties into the village and to work for a "progressive government."

Abel, 55, of 4115 Breckenridge Lane, is a lifetime resident of Pontoon Beach and has been employed with Hurdley Pontiac, Harding Oldsmobile and Cities Service Garage. He has attended Granite City High School, Park's Air College and various military schools.

The trustee is a member of VFW Post 1300, Masonic Lodge 835, Aina Shrine and the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve. He and his wife, Bertha, have a son, Richard Dan Abel, and two grandchildren.

Donald C. Rea

A Pontoon Beach Village trustee since 1973, Donald C. Rea pledges to aid in the growth of the village should he be re-elected April 2.

Rea, 45, of 4237 Marigold Drive, feels the main issue in this year's campaign is annexation, the expansion of the village's boundaries and development within the village. Rea hopes to pursue those goals while "maintaining a consistency in zoning to protect the environment for the residents."

Born in East St. Louis, Rea has lived in Pontoon Beach for 20 years. He is employed as a technical service representative for Granite City Steel. He is a Madison County Board member, serving on the highway, special sewer district and environmental committees. In the past, he has been a member of the Pontoon Beach Zoning Board of Appeals.

He attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, studying business administration and economics. He is a graduate of East St. Louis High School and has served in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Rea is a member of Granite City Elks Lodge 1063. He and his wife, Barbara, have three children, Donald, Ronald and Denise.

Robert E. Vincent

A 12-year resident of Pontoon Beach, Trustee Robert E. Vincent is seeking re-election to "continue village development and growth through annexation and maintain the high standard of our police department."

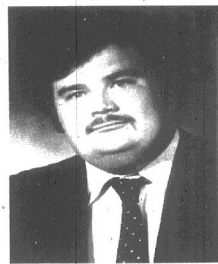

Vincent, 32, of 25 Victoria Drive, also serves as a precinct commit-

He and his wife, Debbie, have two children, a son, Bobby, 9, and a daughter, Autumn, 5.

Louis E. Whitsell

Appointed last September to fill a vacancy on the Pontoon Beach Village Board of Trustees, Trustee Louis E. Whitsell now is seeking election to the two-year post.

Whitsell, 48, of 3 Westgate Drive, is a lifelong resident of Pontoon Beach and is employed as a tool and die foreman at Mueller Machine.

Prior to his appointment to the village board, Whitsell was a Madison County Board member for District 26 from 1972 to 1983, on the Madison County Board of Supervisors from 1971 to 1972, a Nameoki Township supervisor from 1971 to 1977, Nameoki Township clerk from 1969 to 1971 and a Democratic precinct committeeman from 1968 to 1972.

If elected, Whitsell pledges that "service to the public through intergovernmental cooperation will be my top priority. With my past experience and dedication to this community, we will be able to accomplish growth and representation for the citizens of Pontoon Beach. I will continue to serve the people with honesty, perseverance and integrity."

A graduate of Granite City High School, Whitsell also attended Hadley Technical School, Lincoln Institute and Southern Illinois University. ## Granite City

3 enter GC 1st Ward aldermanic race

Three persons will compete for the First Ward aldermanic position in Granite City April 2. Competition will pit the incumbent, Casmer Skubish, against newcomers William A. Dalton and Charles W. Hamilton.

Casmer Skubish

The incumbent Casmer Skubish, 71, of 2701 Lincoln Ave., will be seeking his fourth term as a city alderman. He served as a Sixth Ward alderman from 1953 to 1965, and in 1981, was elected to represent the First Ward.

Born in Neodasha, Kan., Skubish has been a resident of Granite City for 65 years. He attended local schools and has studied accounting and air pollution control.

He is retired, but was employed previously at Granite City Steel, the Illinois Department of Revenue and the city's Air Pollution Department. He has held memberships in local and national fraternal organizations and is currently a member of the American Association for Retired Persons.

He is of the Catholic faith and is a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Skubish said he will protect the interest of the people in the First Ward and the entire city if re-elected. "We need many new jobs, which is a national issue," he said. "We need to enhance our job opportunities by bringing in new industries and businesses and retain our present economic interests."

Skubish and his wife, Gladys, have three children—Tom, Robert and John Skubish and Jeanette McDowell.

William A. Dalton

Challenging the incumbent is William A. Dalton, 40, a resident of Granite City for the past five years.

Born in Vincennes, Ind., Dalton has attended Cameron University, Lawton, Okla., Oscar Rose Junior College, Midwest City, Okla., and Belleville Area College, where he received an associate of applied sciences degree in aviation maintenance technology.

Currently employed in the construction field, Dalton was formerly employed as an aircraft engine repairman at Tinker Air Force Base in Oklahoma and as a heavy equipment operator with the U.S. Army at Fort Sill, Okla., where he held the rank of E-5.

If elected, Dalton says he will work for the expansion of the city by the promotion of small businesses, which he calls the "backbone of progress." He also pledges to bring the government to the people by "bringing all parties—including the general public—to the bargaining table to present all views for a more intelligent decision-making process."

Other campaign goals are to control budget expenditures, especially in the area of equipment purchases. Dalton is single and resides at 2036 Washington Ave.

Charles W. Hamilton

Another challenger, Charles W. Hamilton, 57, of 2819 Buxton Ave., is employed as a heavy equipment operator at Granite City Steel. Born in Madison, he has been a resident of the Quad-City area all of his life.

Hamilton was educated in the Madison School system. He is affiliated with the United Way's Project Help, District Council 3 of the International Chemical Workers Union and the Central Trades Council. He has held the office of business agent of the International Chemical Workers' Local 50 for the past 18 years.

He is of the Catholic faith and attends St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church.

"I know there is a need to bring industrial and other employment back to our area," Hamilton said. "This will prevent our children and future generations from vacating our city to live and find employment elsewhere."

"It is my goal to provide leadership in Ward One and to accomplish this goal. We must stop stagnation and rebuild our city."

Hamilton and his wife, Fay, have four married daughters and one daughter still living at home.
